Inland Revenue (Amendment)
Act, No. 6 of 1969

L. D.—O. 45/68.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE INLAND REVENUE
ACT, No. 4 OF 1963.

[Date of Assent: March 20, 1969]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Ceylon in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Inland Revenue (Amendment) Act, No. 6 of 1969.

Short title.

2. Section 3 of the Inland Revenue Act, No. 4 of 1963, hereafter in this Act referred to as the "principal Act", is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment of section 3 of Act No. 4 of 1963.

(A) in sub-section (1) of that section, in paragraph (b) of that sub-section, by the substitution in sub-paragraph (iv) of that paragraph, for the word "employment," of the following:—

"employment where compensation for such loss is received prior to April 1, 1968,"; and

(B) in sub-section (4) of that section—

(1) in paragraph (a) of that sub-section—

(a) in sub-paragraph (ii) of that paragraph—

(i) by the substitution, for the words "Ordinance, and any sum refunded", of the words "Ordinance, any sum refunded", and

(ii) by the substitution, for all the words and figures from "which corresponds" to the end of that sub-paragraph, of the following:—

"which corresponds to the aforesaid section 46 (1) or section 49 and any sum received on or after

April 1, 1968, as compensation for loss of any office or employment;”
and

(b) in sub-paragraph (v) of that paragraph, by the substitution, for all the words and figures from “Provided that in the case of an entertainment allowance” to the end of that sub-paragraph, of the following:—

“Provided that—

- (a) in the case of an entertainment allowance granted to any person by his employer such portion of the allowance as is equivalent to, or less than, ten per centum of the salary (excluding all allowances) payable to such person shall be deemed not to be profits from employment if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Assessor that such portion of that allowance had been utilized by such person in the course of his duties;
- (b) in the case of any person who is employed as an executive officer, any sum granted as an allowance for travelling which is in excess of the amount determined in accordance with section 11 (2) as expenditure for travelling by such officer shall, for any year of assessment, ending on or before March 31, 1965, be profits from employment;
- (c) in the case of any allowance granted by an employer to an employee for travelling in connection with any trade, business, profession or vocation carried on or exercised by such employer other than travelling from the place of residence of the employee to his place of employment and vice versa—
- (i) such allowance, if it does not exceed one hundred rupees for a month, shall be deemed, for the year of assessment commencing on April 1, 1965, as for each of the three years of assessment next succeeding, not to be profits from employment, and

- (ii) such allowance, if it does not exceed one thousand two hundred rupees for a year, or if it exceeds that amount, such portion of that allowance as is not in excess of that amount, shall for each year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969, be deemed not to be profits from employment;

(d) any allowance for travelling, subsistence and lodging granted by an employer to an employee travelling outside Ceylon in connection with his employment shall, for any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969, be deemed not to be profits from employment if such allowance does not exceed the amount authorized for the purpose by the Controller of Exchange;”;

(2) in paragraph (b) of that sub-section—

(a) by the substitution, for the words “subject to a deduction of twenty per centum for repairs”, of the following:—

“subject to a deduction for any year of assessment ending on or before March 31, 1969, of twenty per centum, and for any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969, of twenty-five per centum, for repairs”;

(b) by the substitution, for the words “aforesaid deduction of twenty per centum”, of the words “aforesaid deduction of twenty per centum or twenty-five per centum, as the case may be, ”;

- (3) in paragraph (c) of that sub-section, by the substitution, for the words “and twenty-five per centum of such net annual value” of the following:—

“and for any year of assessment ending on or before March 31, 1969, of twenty-five per centum, and for any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969, of thirty-three and one-third per centum, of such net annual value”; and

- (4) in paragraph (d) of that sub-section, by the substitution, for the words “twenty per centum of the balance,” of the following:—

“twenty per centum of the balance for any year of assessment ending on or before March 31, 1969, and twenty-five per centum of the balance for any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969.”

Amendment of Section 4 of the principal Act.

3. Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

- (1) by the insertion, immediately after sub-section (2), of the following sub-section:—

“(2A) Where in the year preceding any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969, any person sells any property consisting of a land on which there is a house which was used by him for residential purposes at any time prior to the date of the sale and where, after the date of the sale and before the termination of a period of nine months after the expiry of the year preceding that year of assessment, such person utilizes at least fifty per centum of the proceeds of the sale of that property to acquire or construct a house to be used by him for residential purposes, then upon written request made by such person before the first day of October of that year of assessment or at any time before an assessment in respect of him is made for that year of assessment, the capital gain arising from the change of ownership of that property shall be deemed not to be that person's capital gain for that year of assessment but to be capital gain occurring upon a change of ownership of the house so acquired or constructed by him and such capital gain shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other capital gain which may arise upon the change of ownership of such house.”; and

(2) by the insertion, immediately after sub-section (10), of the following sub-section:—

“(10A) The provisions of sub-section (2A) shall not apply—

(a) to any capital gain in respect of which the provisions of section 90D of the National Housing Act apply; and

(b) to the capital gain of any person arising from the sale of any property described in sub-section (2A) if he has prior to the sale of such property but not prior to April 1, 1968, sold any property of that description.”.

4. Section 5 of the principal Act, as amended by Act No. 26 of 1968, is hereby further amended in sub-section (1) of that section as follows:—

Amendment of section 5 of the principal Act.

(1) by the substitution, for paragraph (g) of that sub-section, of the following paragraph:—

“(g) the emoluments, and any income not arising in Ceylon, of any scientist, technician, expert or adviser, who is not a citizen of Ceylon and who is brought to and employed in Ceylon on or after April 1, 1958, by a corporation to which section 6 applies or by the proprietor of an undertaking to which that section applies, for the purposes of that undertaking, but so however that such exemption shall end on the date of the cessation of employment of such scientist, technician, expert or adviser in such corporation or undertaking or on the date on which the exemption from tax granted by section 6 in respect of that corporation or undertaking ends, whichever is the earlier;”;

(2) by the insertion, immediately after paragraph (gg), of the following paragraph:—

“(ggg) the emoluments, and any income arising in Ceylon, of any scientist, technician, expert or adviser, who is not a citizen of Ceylon and who was brought to and employed in Ceylon on or after April 1, 1938, by the proprietor of any such industrial undertaking as is, on the recommendation of the Minister for the time being in charge of the subject of industries, declared by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved industrial undertaking for the purposes of this section for such period as may be specified in such notice, but so however that such exemption shall end on the date of cessation of employment of such scientist, technician, expert or adviser in such approved undertaking or on the date on which that undertaking ceases to be an approved industrial undertaking, whichever is the earlier;” and

(3) by the substitution, for paragraph (y) of the sub-section, of the following paragraph:—

“(y) the profits and income of any University which is established or deemed to be established under the Higher Education Act, No. 20 of 1966:”.

6. Section 10 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment of section 10 of the principal Act.

(1) in sub-section (1) of that section, by the substitution, in paragraph (g) of that sub-section, for the words “expended by such person ”, of the following:—

“ expended prior to April 1, 1968, by such person ”; and

(2) in sub-section (4) of that section, by the substitution, in paragraph (b) of that sub-section, for the words "in the case of a discard", the words "in the case of a sale or discard"

Insertion of new sections 16A, 16B and 16C in the principal Act.

7. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 16, and shall have effect sections 16A, 16B and 16C, of the principal Act:—

Allowances for approved donations to be deducted from assessable income in arriving at taxable income.

16A (1) In this section "approved donation" means a donation not less amount than one thousand rupees—

(a) made in money or otherwise to the Government of Ceylon, or

(b) made in money to any approved charity within the meaning of section 67 or to any such public charitable trust or institution as is declared by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved charity for the purposes of this section.

For the purposes of this section, the amount of a donation made to the Government of Ceylon otherwise than money shall be the value of such donation, and such value shall—

(i) be the actual cost to the donor of the property donated, or

(ii) where the actual cost cannot be ascertained, be the market value of the property donated.

(2) Where the entirety of the assessable income of a wife or a child for a year of assessment is aggregated with the assessable income of the head of the family of which such wife or child is a member, any approved donation made by such wife or child shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be an approved donation made by the head of the family.

(3) Where in the year preceding the year of assessment commencing on after April 1, 1969, any person has, or is deemed to have, made an approved donation, then—

(a) one-half of the actual amount of the donation; or

(b) an amount representing one-twentieth of the assessable income of that person for that year of assessment or if that person is a company an amount representing one-fortieth of the assessable income of that company for that year of assessment; or

(c) twenty-five thousand rupees, whichever amount is the least, shall be the allowance in relation to that donation and such allowance shall be deducted from the assessable income of that person for that year of assessment in arriving at his taxable income for that year of assessment.

(4) Where a person has, or is deemed to have, made in the year preceding any year of assessment two or more donations, whether to the same approved charity or to different such charities, or to the Government of Ceylon, or to one or more approved charities and to the Government of Ceylon, the aggregate amount of the donations, if such amount is not less than one thousand rupees, shall for the purposes of this section in relation to that year of assessment be treated as one approved donation.

16B (1) Where an individual during the year preceding any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969—

(a) has paid or is deemed to have paid any premia on a life insurance policy or for the purchase of an annuity; or

(b) makes any contributions to any such provident fund or pension fund as is approved by the Allowances for premia on life insurance policies and annuities and provident or pension fund contributions of employees to be deducted from assessable income in arriving at taxable income.

Commissioner or to a regulate provident fund,

then—

(i) a sum equal to one-half of such premia or contributions or one-half of such premia and contributions, as the case may be, or

(ii) an amount representing one-eighth of the assessable income of that individual for that year of assessment, or

(iii) five thousand rupees,

whichever amount is the least, shall be the allowance in relation to such premia or contributions or premia and contributions and such allowance shall be deducted from the assessable income of that individual for that year of assessment in arriving at his taxable income for that year of assessment:

Provided that no allowance under the preceding provisions of this sub-section shall be granted in relation to—

(a) any premia paid outside Ceylon on any life insurance policy issued outside Ceylon after July 4, 1957, and

(b) any premia paid outside Ceylon for the purchase of an annuity outside Ceylon after July 4, 1957.

(2) Where the entirety of the assessable income of a wife or child for any year of assessment is aggregated with the assessable income of the head of the family of which such wife or child is member, any premia paid or contributions made by the wife or child shall for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be premia paid or contributions made by the head of the family.

Allowances in respect of approved investments to be deducted from assessable income in arriving at taxable income.

16c (1) In this section—

“ approved investment ” means—

(a) an investment in an approved undertaking;

(b) any investment which is an approved investment within the meaning of paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of the definition of “ approved investment ” for the purposes of paragraph (g) of sub-section (2) of section 69A;

(c) an investment in an approved project within the meaning of section 69,

but does not include—

(i) an investment for the purpose of purchasing an existing investment, or

(ii) an investment for the purpose of purchasing shares in a company, being an investment so made after the expiry of six years commencing from the date of the incorporation of that company; or

(iii) an investment for the purpose of purchasing shares in a company which are not ordinary shares ;

“ approved undertaking ” means any new undertaking which is a company and which —

(a) if such undertaking is an industrial undertaking, is considered by the Minister for the time being in charge of the subject of industries to be essential for the economic progress of Ceylon and is at the request of such Minister declared by the Minister of Finance by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved undertaking for the purpose of this section, and

- (b) if such undertaking is an undertaking other than an industrial undertaking, is considered by the Minister of Finance to be essential for the economic progress of Ceylon and is declared by him by notice published in the Gazette to be an approved undertaking for the purposes of this section.

(2) Where the entirety of the assessable income of a wife or child for any year of assessment is aggregated with the assessable income of the head of the family of which such wife or child is a member, any approved investment made by such wife or child shall be deemed to be an approved investment made by the head of the family.

(3) Where in the year preceding any year of assessment commencing on or after April 1, 1969, an individual has made or is deemed to have made an approved investment, then—

- (a) an amount equal to one-half of the actual amount of that investment, or
- (b) an amount representing one-tenth of the assessable income of that individual, or
- (c) twenty-five thousand rupees, whichever amount is the least, shall be the allowance in relation to that approved investment and such allowance shall be deducted from the assessable income of that individual for that year of assessment in arriving at his taxable income for that year of assessment:

Provided, however, that the preceding provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to an approved investment made or deemed to have been made by an individual with any money withdrawn or realized by that individual on or after August 2, 1968, and before April 1, 1970, from an approved saving specified in paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) or paragraph (g) of sub-section (2) of section 69A and accordingly no deduction under this sub-section shall be made from the assessable income of that individual in relation to that approved investment.

(4) Where an individual has, or is deemed to have, made in any year of assessment two or more approved investments, the aggregate amount of such investments shall be treated as one approved investment for the purposes of this section.

(5) Where an allowance has been granted to an individual under sub-section (3) in respect of an approved investment and where, within a period of six years after the date of such investment, the ownership of that investment changes otherwise than by the death of the individual who made that investment or any sum of money in that investment is withdrawn or realized by the individual who made that investment, then in respect of the year of assessment in which such allowance was granted an additional assessment consisting of the difference between the amount of income tax to which the individual who has been granted the allowance would have been liable if such allowance had not been granted and the amount of tax charged for that year of assessment shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, be made in respect of that individual and the provisions of this Act relating to notice of assessment, appeal and other proceedings shall apply in relation to such additional assessment.'

section 17 of the
principal Act.

8. Section 17 of the principal Act is here amended in sub-section (3) of that section by the insertion, immediately after paragraph (c) of the sub-section, of the following paragraph:—

“(cc) any sum received on or after April 1, 1969 as compensation for loss of office or employment, or”.
