(Amendment) Act, No. 60 of 1957*

1/2 L. D.—O. 43/54.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE SHOP AND OFFICE EMPLOYEES
(REGULATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND REMUNERATION)
ACT, NO. 19 OF 1954.

[Date of Assent: December 21, 1957]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Ceylon in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Shop and Office Employees (Regulation of Employment and Remuneration) (Amendment) Act, No. 60 of 1957.

Short title.

2. Section 3 of the Shop and Office Employees (Regulation of Employment and Remuneration) Act, No. 19 of 1954, hereinafter referred to as the "principal Act", is hereby amended, in sub-section (3) of that section, by the insertion, immediately after paragraph (c) of that sub-section, of the following new paragraph:—

Amendment of section 3 of Act No. 19 of 1954.

"(cc) prescribing the cases and the circumstances in which any employee who has been on leave or on holiday on any day in any week shall be deemed, for the purpose of computing overtime, to have worked for the normal period for which he would have worked if he had not been on such leave or holiday;"

3. Section 5 of the principal Act is hereby amended in sub-section (3) of that section by the substitution, for the expression "section 7 or", of the expression "section 7 or Part IA or".

Amendment of section 5 of the principal Act.

4. Section 6 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment of section 6 of the principal Act.

(1) in sub-section (5) of that section, by the substitution, in paragraph (a) of that sub-section, for the word "Act", of the words "Act or of any other written law";

4 *Shop and Office Employees (Regulation of Employment and Remuneration)
(Amendment) Act, No. 60 of 1957*

(2) by the insertion, immediately after sub-section (7) of that section, of the following new sub-section:—

“(7A) The Commissioner may, by notification published in the Gazette and in a Sinhala newspaper, a Tamil newspaper and an English newspaper circulating in Ceylon, fix, in respect of any class of shops or offices, a date to be the date of commencement of the year of employment for the purposes of this section.”; and

(3) by the repeal of sub-section (8) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following new sub-section:—

“(8) In this section, the expression “year of employment”, with reference to any shop or office, shall,—

(a) where that shop or office belongs to any class of shops or offices in respect of which the Commissioner has fixed a date under sub-section (7A), mean the period of twelve months reckoned from that date, and

(b) in any other case, mean the period of twelve months reckoned from the first day of January of each year.’.

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Act.

5. Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) in sub-section (1) of that section, by the substitution, for the word “eight”, of the word “nine”; and

(b) in sub-section (2) of that section—

(i) by the substitution, for the words “employed on any day”, of the words “employed for a normal period of employment on any day”; and

*Shop and Office Employees (Regulation of Employment and Remuneration)
(Amendment) Act, No. 60 of 1957* 5

(ii) by the substitution, for all the words from "on or before" to "determined", of the following:—

"on or before the thirty-first day of December next succeeding, or be paid remuneration for his employment on the day so declared to be a holiday".

6. Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the repeal of sub-section (3) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following new sub-section:—

Amendment of section 9 of the principal Act.

"(3) Nothing in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or in the Schedule shall apply to any person employed in or about the business of a shop or office on any day on which the total period during which he is so employed does not exceed five continuous hours."

7. The following new Part is hereby inserted immediately after section 18, and shall have effect as Part IA, of the principal Act:—

Insertion of new Part IA in the principal Act.

PART IA.

MATERNITY BENEFITS.

Application of this Part.

18A. This Part shall apply to every female person employed in or about the business of a shop or office.

Leave in consequence of pregnancy and confinement.

18B. (1) A female employee to whom this Part applies shall, upon giving notice to her employer that she expects to be confined within fourteen days from the date specified in the notice, be entitled to leave for the period commencing on that date and ending on the day immediately preceding the date of her confinement, and her employer shall allow such leave.

(2) A female employee to whom this Part applies shall, if she is confined, be entitled to take and shall take leave for a period of twenty-eight days commencing on the date of her confinement, and her employer shall allow such leave.

6 *Shop and Office Employees (Regulation of Employment and Remuneration)
(Amendment) Act, No. 60 of 1957*

Remuneration
for period
of leave in consequence
of pregnancy
or confinement

18c. (1) Where a female employee to whom this Part applies takes leave in accordance with sub-section (1) of section 18B, she shall be paid full remuneration for the entire period of the leave if that period does not exceed fourteen days or for fourteen days of that period if that period exceeds fourteen days.

(2) A female employee to whom this Part applies shall be paid full remuneration for the entire period of the leave which she is required by sub-section (2) of section 18B to take.

Work which is prohibited
during and after pregnancy.

18d. (1) Where a female employee to whom this Part applies gives notice to her employer that she expects to be confined within such period (not exceeding three months), from the date specified in the notice, as may be so specified, she shall not be employed, or be caused or permitted to be employed, during the period commencing on that date and ending on the date immediately preceding the date of her confinement, on any such work as may be injurious to her or her child.

(2) A female employee referred to in sub-section (1) who is confined shall not be employed, or be caused or permitted to be employed, during the period of three months commencing on the date of her confinement, on any work referred to in that sub-section.

Employment
not to be terminated
because of pregnancy or confinement or
of illness in consequence
thereof.

18e. (1) The employment of any female employee to whom this Part applies shall not be terminated by reason only of her pregnancy or confinement or of any illness consequent on her pregnancy or confinement.

(2) Where an employer is prosecuted for the offence of acting in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), the burden of proving that the employment of the female employee was terminated by reason of some fact other than her pregnancy or confinement or any illness consequent on her pregnancy or confinement shall be upon the employer.

(Amendment) Act, No. 60 of 1957* 7

No notice of dismissal to be given to female employee when she is on leave under this Part.

18F. When a female employee to whom this Part applies is absent on leave in accordance with the provisions of this Part, her employer shall not give her notice of dismissal during such absence or on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence.

Meaning of "confinement" and "confined".

18G. In this Part the expression "confinement" means labour resulting in the issue of a child whether alive or dead, or the issue of a viable foetus, and the expression "confined" shall be construed accordingly.

Leave under this Part to be in addition to any holiday or leave under any other Part.

18H. The leave to which a female employee is entitled under this Part shall be in addition to any holiday or leave to which she is entitled under any other Part.'

8. Section 19 of the principal Act is hereby amended, in sub-section (1) of that section, by the substitution, for paragraph (c) of that sub-section, of the following new paragraph:—

Amendment of section 19 of the principal Act.

"(c) If on any date the employer terminates the employment of any employee or any employee lawfully terminates his employment, the employer shall, before the expiry of the second working day after that date, pay the remuneration due to that employee."

9. Section 25 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

Amendment of section 25 of the principal Act.

(1) by the insertion, immediately after sub-section (8A) of that section, of the following new sub-sections:—

"(8B) Where, in the attendance of the members of a Remuneration Tribunal for the purpose of holding any meeting of that Tribunal, the number of members representing employers is greater or less than the number of members representing employees, the members representing employers or the members representing employees, whichever are in the majority, shall, before that meeting commences, choose from among themselves the member or members who shall refrain from voting at that meeting in order to ensure that the number of members representing employers who shall be entitled to vote at that meeting and the number of members representing employees who shall be so entitled shall be equal:

Provided, however, that where the representative members who are in the majority are unable to agree among themselves as to which of them shall so refrain from voting, the member or members who shall refrain from voting at that meeting shall be chosen by lot to be drawn in the presence and under the directions of the person presiding at that meeting.

(8c) A representative member of a Remuneration Tribunal who has been chosen in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (8B) to refrain from voting at any meeting of that Tribunal shall not be entitled to vote at that meeting but shall be entitled to be present and to participate in any discussion at that meeting:

Provided, however, that such representative member shall be entitled to vote if, as a result of an increase in the attendance of members at any time during such meeting, the number of members present who represent employers is equal to the number of members present who represent employees." ;
and

- (2) in sub-section (9) of that section, by the substitution, for the words " members of the Tribunal ", of the words " members of the Tribunal present and entitled to vote at the meeting of the Tribunal ".
